

Dear Sirs,

I just want to register my opinion that I believe I, as a paying customer, should be able to restrict who has access to my phone number. I do not desire to be solicited over the phone and wish to speak in support of a state's ability to create and keep a list of residents who should not be bothered by these phone calls.

Thank-you for your time.

Carus Shaffer